Office of Comptroller, "Historical Notes re: Budget and Finance Activities - CIA and Predecessor Organizations, 20 Sept. 1945 thru 23 Jan. 1952; typewritten; 19 pp; 2 attachments.

ABSTRACT

This historical paper sets forth the organizational and legislative evolution of the Comptroller's budget and finance responsibilities. It concludes with a statement on rate of expenditures and a summary of CIG-CIA appropriations and obligations by Fiscal Years 1947 through 1953. Attached is a progress report from the Comptroller to the DDA which concludes with recommendations on how to improve his function. Also attached is a portion of the FY-1952 budget submission dated 1 Sept. 1950. These portions include an introductory statement, legislative program and a statement of management improvement activities.

Historical Report

This will acknowledge with thanks receipt of the historical report concerning the affairs of your office. It is a pleasure to read anything so admirably prepared.

It is realized that certain portions of it are extremely sensitive, and in consequence, the report has been lodged in the safe of Mr. A. B. Darling, Chief of the Historical Section, to which he alone has access.
